Psalm 32 1
Ezek. 36 31
Psalm 32 5
Psalm 106 37

2 Lord most high, unchangable,
Thy Promise is most merciful;
True Repentance to me give,
Bid the chief of Sinners live;
Full Forgiveness let me have,
I have sinn'd, Lord Jesus save;
My Transgressions multiply'd,
Abominations none exceed.
3 As the Sands around the Sea,
My Transgressions countless be;
I of Abraham's Seed the worst,
Am undone if thou act just;

My

My ſtony Heart doth bow the Knee,
Be not for ever angry;
Lord, I know Mercy's with thee,
Repenting of Man's Miſery. Gen. 7 6

4 Trembling Fear to Sinners came,
By thy dreadful, glorious Name;
All thy Goodneſs, Lord ſhew me, Pſalm 78 38

An HYMN on a Storm at Sea.

1 GREAT is thy Fame, O Lord, my God,
Psalm 77 16 Thou ruleſt the ſtormy Seas;
The Winds, the Waves obey thy Word,
Thou turn'ſt them as thou pleaſe.

Pſal. 107 25 2 Thy Works, O Lord, I daily ſee,
Great Wonders in the deep;
Theſe Waves that foam runs Mountains high,
And threaten Men and Ship.

Pſal. 107 26 3 The Seamens Souls, with Trouble melt,
Whilſt Waves mount up to Heav'n;
What Sighs and Groans, that may be felt,
Pſalm 107 28 For Mercy to be given.

ſal 107 27 4 They ſtagger now like drunken Men,
Our Cunnings gone, they cry;
In ſight of Death, and fear of Hell,
They're now afraid to die.

Pſal. 46 10 5 My God Commands, hither you may,
But further ſhall not come;
The Winds, the Waves, our God obey,
Although they toſs and foam.

6 God

6 God turns the Storm into a Calm, Pſalm 107 29
And bids the Waves be ſtill;
With Thanks we own, his mighty Arm,
And bleſs his holy Will.

7 In thankful Songs, let every Breath, Pſal. 107 1
The Lord, Jehovah praiſe; Pſal. 104 9
In Gladneſs, Worſhip him in Truth, John 4 24
Who Rules both Earth and Seas.

8 Oe'er this wide Sea, a dying World, Iſa. 32 20
In Chriſt our Ark we move;
Our Voyage to Heav'n, Tongue can't un-
Our Laden's boundleſs Love. [fold, 1 John 4 8
